Emergency Medical Technician/First Responder (PRN)

Apply

Company Cape FoxLocation Seattle, WADate Posted 01/01/2026

Description

Cape Fox Concentric Methods is accepting resumes for Emergency Medical Technician (EMT)/First Responder (PRN) to provide on-site safety monitoring and immediate BLS response during Physical Fitness Exams for the United States Postal Inspection Service (USPIS).

Required: Current state EMT-B certification is required. 1-2 years of field experience responding to medical events in fitness, athletic, or occupational environments. Current Basic Life Support (BLS) certification is required. The total hourly pay for this non-exempt position is $35.71 per hour for up to 40 hours per week. This is comprised of a base hourly rate of $30.78 plus $4.93 per hour Health & Welfare (H&W) for up to 40 hours per week as required by the Service Contract Labor Standards (SCLS) regulations. The above range represents the company's good faith and reasonable estimate of the range of possible compensation at the time of posting. In addition, we offer a 401K with company match. This job will be posted until filled or withdrawn. Responsibilities: Set Up and Break Down: Prepare and dismantle testing environments at assigned locations to ensure a safe and efficient operation. Health Monitoring: Monitor applicant health status during testing activities, responding promptly to any medical incidents that arise. Medical Care: Assess and monitor participants for signs of distress or injury, provide first aid and basic emergency care (e.g., CPR, bleeding control, splinting), request 911 onsite support if needed and provide care until arrival. First Aid Kit Maintenance: Regularly check and maintain the readiness of the first aid kit, ensuring all supplies are stocked and up to date. Incident Documentation: Document all medical incidents thoroughly and coordinate follow-up actions with the program's medical oversight team to ensure comprehensive care and reporting. Safety Implementation: Assist in implementing preventative measures and conducting safety checks before and during testing to minimize risks and enhance applicant safety. Sessions are scheduled in three-hour blocks with the EMT typically working three hours per event.
